

Dear parents/guardians,

Re: World Book Day

On Thursday 7th March the Academy and country will be celebrating World Book day. This is a fantastic opportunity to celebrate reading and show the importance it has for young people and adults. As an Academy, we will be carrying out numerous activities to celebrate this important day such as competitions for best Tutor door and many more!

In previous years, the staff at Outwood Academy Acklam have dressed up as a character from their favourite book and this has been received well by our students, as they have enjoyed seeing the different characters we have portrayed. Last academic year, the students expressed that they would have liked to have the opportunity to join in with staff and dress up too! Well we have listened, and this year we are allowing this! Mr Skidmore is allowing students to dress up for World Book Day, as long as they are able to say who the character is and be willing to discuss their favourite book, that the character is linked to. Students must wear their school uniform if they do not want to take part and be in a costume. We will be also running a competition for the best costumes, with prizes for the top three students.

We are looking forward to seeing our wonderful students in their World Book Day costumes. If you have any enquiries please email Mrs Bone on e.bone@acklam.outwood.com.

Yours sincerely,

E. Bone
Assistant Principal
